

FAQ: How to Include Share My Meals in Your Will

1. Why should I include Share My Meals in my will?

Including SMM in your will is a meaningful way to leave a lasting legacy. Your gift will help ensure that future generations continue to benefit from healthy, nutritious meals — and that food doesn't go to waste. It's a powerful act of kindness that lives on.

2. What kind of gift can I leave in my will?

You can leave:

- A specific dollar amount
- A percentage of your estate
- The remainder of your estate (after your loved ones are taken care of)
- Specific assets such as stocks, real estate, or retirement funds

Even a small percentage can make a big difference.

3. Is there a specific language I should use in my will?

Yes. Here is an example of wording you can share with your attorney or advisor:

"I give [% of my estate / $_ / the remainder of my estate] to Share My Meals Inc., a nonprofit organization located in Princeton, NJ (EIN: [84-4149439]), to be used for its general charitable purposes."

We always recommend working with a legal or financial advisor when preparing or updating your will.

4. Do I need to tell you if I've included SMM in my will?

It's completely up to you — but we'd love to know! If you let us know about your gift, we can thank you properly and welcome you into our Legacy Circle (with your permission). Your example may also inspire others to give.

5. Can I change my mind later?

Absolutely. A bequest in your will is revocable, which means you can change or remove it at any time if your circumstances change.

6. Is there a minimum gift amount?

No. Every legacy gift — no matter the size — helps nourish lives and strengthen our impact.

7. I'm ready. What's the next step?
